

Getting Started with Canvas

COMP 2210 – Dr. Hendrix

AUBURN

UNIVERSITY

SAMUEL GINN
COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

Step 1

Logging in to Canvas

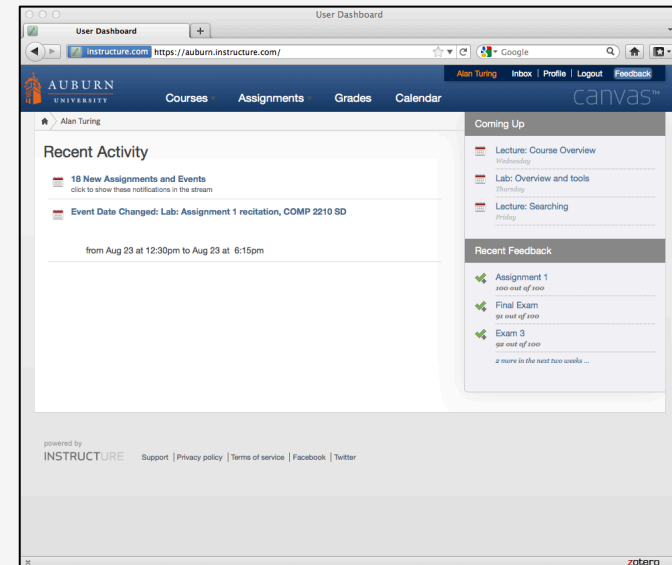

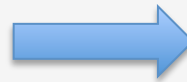

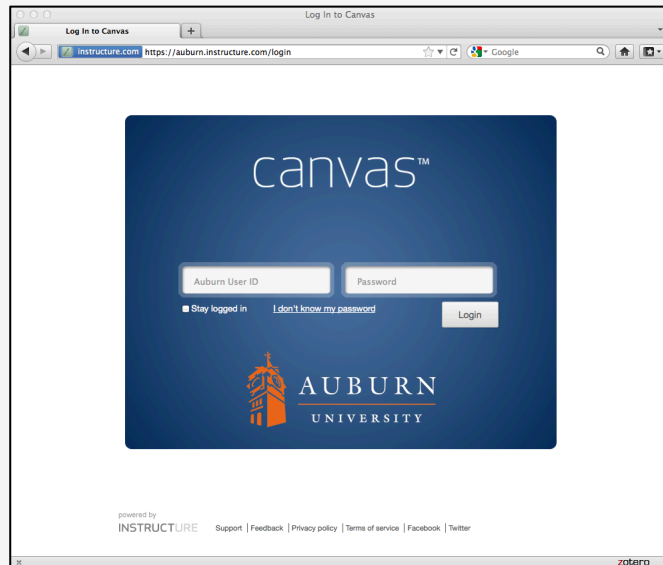

Step 1 – Logging in

There are different ways to log in to your Canvas account.

Just pick the one you like the best.

Option A

Log in at <https://auburn.instructure.com>

Type in your Auburn User ID and password (the ones you use for TigerMail), then click Login.

This is your main Canvas page that summarizes your access and activities in all your courses that are in Canvas.

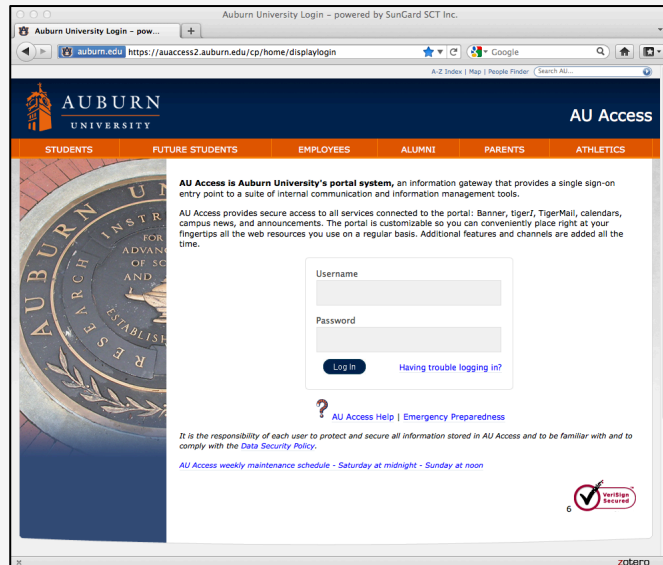

Step 1 – Logging in

There are different ways to log in to your Canvas account.

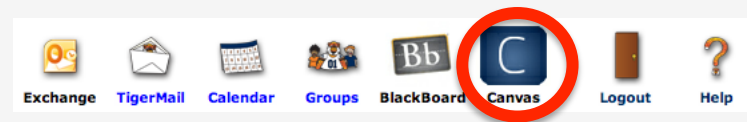

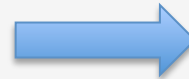

Just pick the one you like the best.

Option B

Log in at <http://auaccess.auburn.edu>

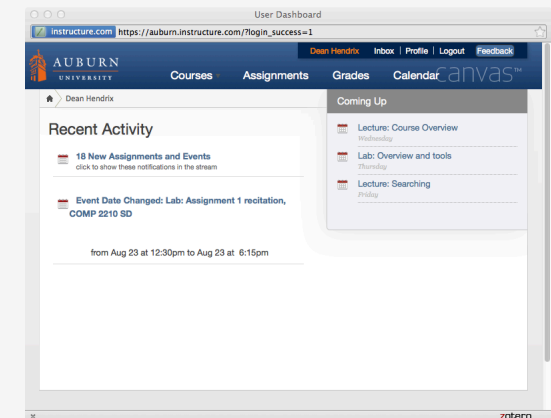

Type in your Auburn User ID and password (the ones you use for TigerMail), then click Login.

Click on the big blue “C” in the top right of the resulting page

You'll end up at the main Canvas page (the User Dashboard) like you did in Option A, but it will be a smaller browser window with no navigation toolbar.

Step 2

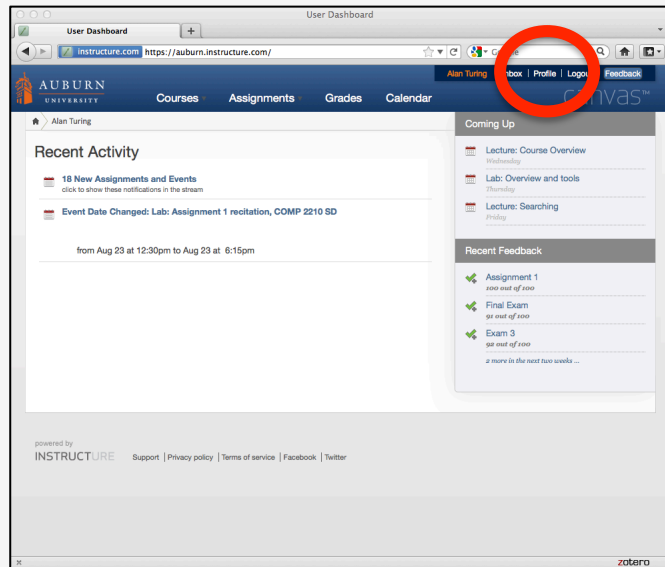

Setting your Profile

Step 2 – Setting your Profile

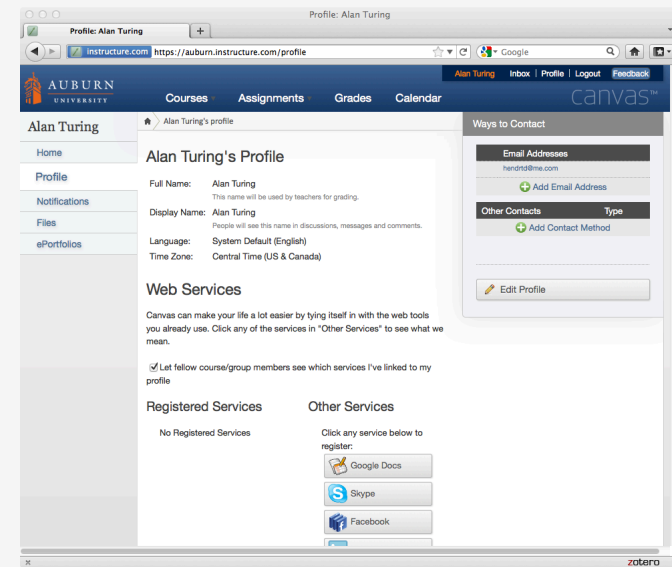

There are two things to do in setting up your Profile:

(A) Link in web services (like Facebook). (B) Set notification preferences.

The Profile Page

Click on the Profile link in the top right menu of the page.

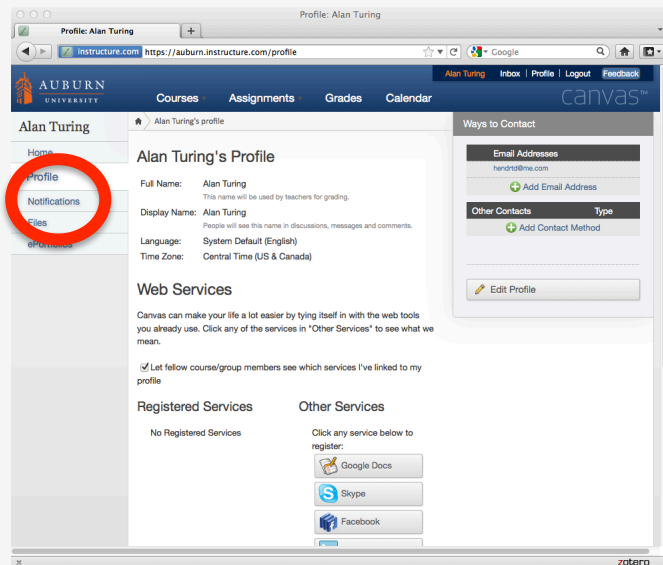

This is your main Profile page that, among other things, allows you to link web services to your Canvas account.

Step 2 – Setting your Profile

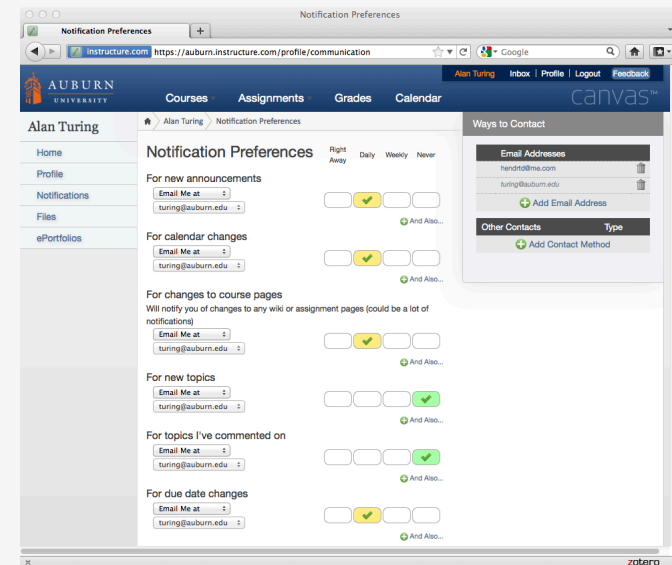

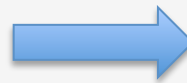

There are two things to do in setting up your Profile:

- (A) Link in web services (like Facebook). (B) Set notification preferences.

The Notifications Page

Click on the Notifications link in the left menu of the page.

This is the notifications page where you decide how and when you will be notified about course events.

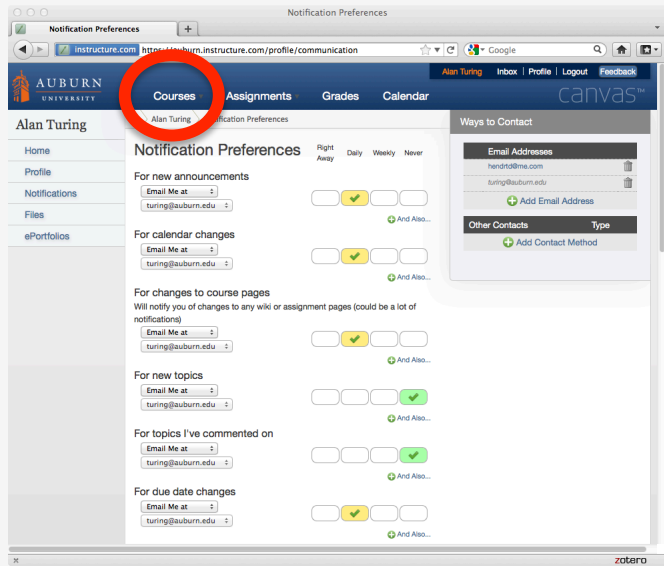

You are required to be notified of all new course announcements at your TigerMail account.

Step 3

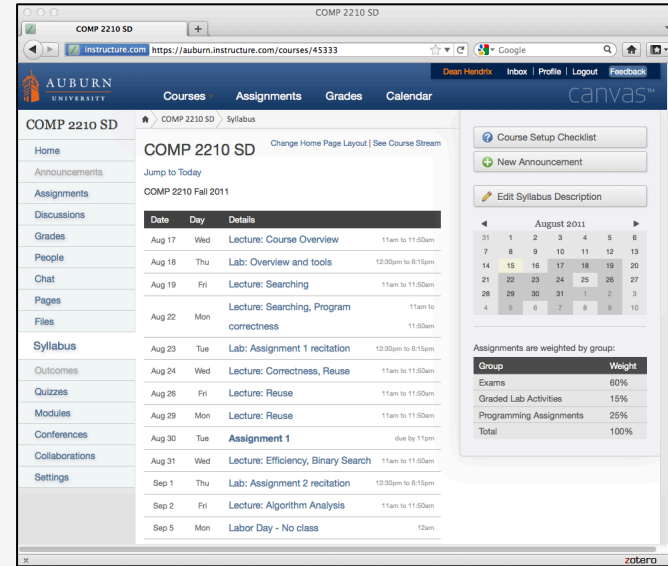

Explore the course

Step 3 – Explore the course

Start exploring the course and make sure that you are comfortable using Canvas.

Click on the Courses link in the top menu of the page, and select the COMP 2210 course.

Explore all the options in the left menu, and then browse through the course.

If you have any trouble using Canvas or completing any of these steps, notify your TA or instructor immediately.
